the degeased. Building Inspector F. W. Lewis says that he intends to strictly enforce the ordinance of the city in regard to the onstruction of buildings with a view to decreasing the fire risks. Chief Bywater of the fire department will assist the building inspector in keeping a watch on buildings in process of construction to see that there is no faulty construc tion work going on. Contractors would probably save considerable trouble by reading up on the building ordinances of the city if they are not already familiar

Ex-Sheriff Virgil Kelly of Millard county, is here from Filimore. He says there have been refreshing ains in that section of the state in the last two weeks, but that up to that time was extremely dry; and to the south t has been bone dry all winter. He reports an extended feeling of discouragement all over the southern part of the state, and farmers, ranchmen and stockmen are getting ready to remove to Idaho and Alberta, where more favorable conditions obtain, and where the fight for life is not so hard. There is no snow in the southern mountains,

At yesterday afternoon's meeting of the world's fair commission the secre tary was directed to pay $1,208 to Director General Whitaker for Utah building furniture, and to wire Mr. Whitaker for plans for the educational department for approval by the com-mission. A letter from Mr. Whitaker stated that work was at a standstill be cause the painters were on a strike, and the lack of furniture. tor for the educational department was with the state board of education, and the appointment of other employed was left until April 6 next.

Dun's Review, after giving Salt Lake rest of several months, has concluded to restore it to its place in the weekly trade report, and says of business conditions here, for the week end ing last Saturday evening, "Trade, both wholesale and retail, is rather quiet, and to some extent is retarded by continued unfavorable weather and bad roads. Some country buyers also with hold orders, pending their visit to market during conference the early part of next month. Collections are slow, but compare fairly well with last year. Money is tight and in good demand."

Mr. Brigham U. S. Young, a resident of Apsley, Ontario, Canada, is in the city. Mr. Young is not a member of the "Mormon" Church, neither is his father nor any of his family, as his name might lead many people to sup-He states, however, that his father was so strong an admirer of the late President Brigham Young and Gen. U. S. Grant, that he determined his son should be named after them. This conclusion is endorsed by the son himself, who this morning called at the Bureau of Information and Church Literature and proudly registered as "Brigham U. S. Young." The gentleman is much impressed with his visit city and his appreciation of President Young, whose namesake he s, is certainly refreshing in these times of hatred and opposition.

HELD FOR GRAND LARCENY

Big Lucille Will Have to Stand Trial In the District Court.

"Big Lucille," the woman who was given a preliminary hearing on the charge of robbing Frank Adair of $600, will ahve to face the charge of grand larceny in the district court. An account of her hearing was published in last evening's "News." The hearing was concluded yesterday afternoon, and Judge Diehl took the case under advisement until 10 o'clock this morning. He then ruled that there was probable cause to believe the defendant guilty as chargd, and ordered her held to await he action of the higher court. In default of $500 bonds, she was taken to the county jail.

BEFORE DIEHL.

Daniel Grow and Jerold Budd Arraigned On Charge of Incorrigibility.

Judge C. B. Diehl had several state cases before him this morning. Two boys, Daniel Grow and Jerold Budd, charged with incorrigibility, entered pleas of not guilty and their cases were set for April 6 when they will be given a hearing. They were released on their own recognizance. Joe Brown, who early yesterday morning, made an assault with a butcher knife on Burt Leroy in a lunch-room on Second South street, was charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do bodily harm. His hearing was set for April 1, at which time he will enter his plea. He was unable to furnish $250 bonds, and was taken to the county jail.
